EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application is in condition for allowance except for the presence of non-elected claims 30, 32-36, 54-56 and 58-60 without traverse filed on 05/11/04.

Accordingly, claims 30, 32-36, 54-56 and 58-60 have been canceled.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 29, 31, 38-53 and 57 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
4. As to claim 29, the prior arts of record do not anticipate or render obvious to one skilled in the art a liquid crystal display device comprising various elements as claimed, more specifically each of the pixel areas having a reflection area defined by reflective electrode region and a transmission area defined by transmissive electrode region wherein a thickness (d1) of the liquid crystal layer in the transmissive electrode region a thickness (d2) of the liquid crystal layer in the reflective electrode region are defined by a relationship  $d1 > d2$ , and wherein thickness d1 is substantially larger than thickness d2 so that electrooptical characteristics of the reflection area and the transmission area are approximately matched.
5. As to claims 31 and 47, the prior arts of record do not anticipate or render obvious to one skilled in the art a liquid crystal display device comprising various elements as claimed, more specifically each of the pixel areas having a reflection area defined by reflective electrode region and a transmission area defined by transmissive electrode region wherein a thickness (d1) of the liquid crystal layer in the transmissive electrode region a thickness (d2) of the liquid crystal layer in the reflective electrode region are defined by a relationship  $d1 > 2 \cdot d2$ .
6. As to claim 38, the prior arts of record do not anticipate or render obvious to one skilled in the art a liquid crystal display device comprising various elements as claimed, more specifically each of the pixel areas having a reflection area defined by reflective electrode region and a transmission area defined by transmissive electrode region wherein a thickness (d1) of the liquid crystal layer in the transmissive electrode region a thickness (d2) of the liquid crystal layer in the reflective electrode region are defined by a relationship  $d1 > d2$  and wherein thickness d1 is substantially larger than thickness d2.

7. As to claim 53, the prior arts of record do not anticipate or render obvious to one skilled in the art a liquid crystal display device comprising various elements as claimed, more specifically each of the pixel areas having a reflection area defined by reflective electrode region and a transmission area defined by transmissive electrode region wherein a thickness (d1) of the liquid crystal layer in the transmissive electrode region a thickness (d2) of the liquid crystal layer in the reflective electrode region are defined by a relationship  $d1 > d2$  and wherein the reflective electrode at least partially overlaps the transmissive electrode.

8. As to claim 57, the prior arts of record do not anticipate or render obvious to one skilled in the art a liquid crystal display device comprising various elements as claimed, more specifically each of the pixel areas having a reflection area defined by reflective electrode region and a transmission area defined by transmission electrode region and wherein the reflection electrode region is higher than the transmission electrode region, forming a step on a surface of the first substrate, and thus a thickness of the liquid crystal layer in the reflection region is smaller than a thickness of the liquid crystal layer in the transmission region.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
